LAROSE EARNS SUPPORT OF MORE THAN 250 LOCAL CONSERVATIVE LEADERS

(Columbus) – Frank LaRose, who leads the U.S. Senate primary by double-digits, announced the latest endorsements from local conservative leaders. Frank continues to earn support from throughout the state with more than 250 grassroots supporters, including party leaders, public officials, business leaders, and veterans.

“Talk is cheap – Ohioans want action,” said LaRose. “They want a battle-tested conservative with a proven track record of fighting for their values. I’m honored by the strong support we’ve received only a few months into my campaign and I will keep working to earn the support of Ohio voters to finally retire Sherrod Brown.”

These endorsements follow seven consecutive polls showing Frank LaRose with a commanding double-digit lead over his GOP primary opponents. Despite Republican candidates Bernie Moreno and Matt Dolan spending money on television and digital statewide ads and running for nearly four years, LaRose leads the field by more than the other two opponents combined.

What they're saying:

"I served with Frank in the Ohio Legislature and Ohioans deserve a battle-tested, lifelong conservative in the U.S. Senate to take our country back. While other candidates talk a big game, Frank has a proven track-record of standing up for Ohio values and winning elections. That's why he's clearly the best choice to be Ohio's next U.S. Senator."
